

Vantage Associates-West, Inc. consults with successful clients in the energy, medical, and financial fields to assist them in achieving and sustaining industry leading performance in growth and profitability.

Vantage consultants are continually acknowledged and rewarded for their world-class processes and candid communications with executives and leadership teams.

By focusing on people dynamics as well as strategic planning and results execution, Vantage consultants guide their clients through challenging business and professional transitions to define and achieve the best possible outcomes.

FIRM PROFILE

Vantage Associates-West, Inc. consults exclusively with successful executives, professionals, and entrepreneurs who seek to continually improve themselves and their organizations in the areas of planning, execution, and leadership.

Vantage creates impact value through consulting in:

Strategy

Aligning executive leadership teams on their future state

Executive Leadership Development

Consulting from Strategy

Guiding senior executives to operationalize a quantifiably higher level of effectiveness

Executive Project Leadership

Allowing senior executives to achieve uncommon success—from the beginning—as they lead projects

Mergers and Acquisitions

Assisting senior executives to operationalize their acquisition strategy

Acquisition Integration

Supporting senior executives to ensure they realize the required return on their investment

Conflict Resolution

Helping senior executives deal with the inevitable and intractable conflicts

Succession

Working with senior executives to sustain the success of their team and their organization

713.741.2222
vantage-west.com